AUCTION SALES.

Virginia Midland Railroad

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION

By virtue of and in obedience to a decree rendered by the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria in the escheat cause of John C. Grabau vs. the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad Company and others, I shall, in front of the Market Building on Duke street, in the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, at noon, on the TWENTY-SIXTH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1880, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, the following described property:

THE LINE OF RAILROAD known as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Manassas and from the town of Manassas, in the county of Prince William, on the aforesaid main line, to the town of Harrisonburg, in the county of Rockingham, together with all the branches thereof as they now exist with all appurtenances and equipments, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and works to the said railroad and branches respectively belonging, or in any way appertaining, including the roadway and tracks, rails and road bed, side tracks, bridges, viaduct, trestles, fences, stations, depots, machine shops and all other buildings and structures, docks and wharves, sand and gravel pits and deposits of materials and all other things belonging to, or used or designed to be used, or in connection with the said railroad or branch railroads and tanks respectively together with all locomotives and tenders, freight and passenger cars and all other cars and all other rolling stock or rolling material, horses, mowers, tools and implements for the use of said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property thereunto belonging, including all property and things whatsoever of any such nature or description as is above mentioned. The said line of railway and branches extends a total distance of 346 miles.

The purchaser of said road and property above described will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibilities of said defendant company under a contract; between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, dated on the 20th day of August, 1873 whereby the said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company leased from said defendant company so much of the said road as lies between Strasburg and Harrisonburg and so much of said road as lies between said points will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take said road and other property subject to the contracts made under orders of the Circuit Court of the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Roanoke Railroad Company and the Franklin and Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and subject to all other contracts of the Receiver in regard to said property, which the Receiver has made with the Court, and which will be made up by his liability to the court, and will assume all obligations with the terms of the purchase agreement with the cost of said road and the expenses of his cost and risk.

The terms of sale—Entrance to Corporation court room, Fairfax street.

FRANCIS MILLER,
H. FREDERICK BRACE,
Executors of Daniel Miller, deceased.

The above sale has been postponed until SATURDAY, November 6th, 1880, at the same hour and place.

The above sale is further postponed till SATURDAY, November 20th, 1880, when it will take place at the same hour and place, unless the above sale is further postponed till Friday, December 4th, 1880 when it will take place at 3 o'clock p.m. at the same place.

Terms—The term—$1000 which said Com-misioner shall sell said property to a sum of money said degree are—each as a credit of all bonds equal to the principal and interest of property or secured by deeds of trust on—caused by the any part thereof, except those in action, dated deed of trust of the defendant corporation on the 1st of May, 1873, in which D. H. Miller, Robert Garrett and John C. Grabau, trustees and for further amount of cash equal to the principal of the debt secured by that deed, to be run equal to the principal of the debt which has been heretofore ascertained to be due under said deed, on such credit as will meet the amount of said debt at maturity, taking care that as to such deferred payments provision be made for the purchaser to pay interest on the purchase money in installments to the interest so to be paid by him shall meet the coupons for interest yet to fall due on said principal—so to residue of the purchase money on a credit of one, two and three years, will interest from date of sale.

For the deferred payment as above provided the Commissioner shall take the obligations of the purchaser and return them with his report of sale, when the Court will direct how the payment of the same shall be secured by some satisfactory hen on the premises sold.

Or the cash, which it is herein provided shall be required on the sale of said property, two thousand dollars, $2000.00 shall be paid to the Commissioner within five days after said sale, and the residue shall be paid by the purchaser upon the confirmation of said sale in such manner as the Court in the decree of confirmation may direct.

JOHN S. BARBOUR,
Commissioner of Sale.
